

NATIONAL A.A. ARCHIVES WORKSHOP UNITED STATES AND CANADA

National Alcoholics Anonymous Archives Workshop By-Laws

I. Introduction

The National Alcoholics Anonymous Archives Workshop ("NAAAW") began in 1996 with a Workshop held in Akron, Ohio at the Mayflower Hotel. The Workshop grew out of the desire of a group of Archivists to have a Workshop for the Archivists operating within the General Service, Intergroup, and Institutions structures. These Archivists are found all across North America as well as the rest of the world. We take our inspiration from the first General Service Archivist, Nell Wing, and all of the subsequent General Service Office Archivists. Our Co-founder, Bill W., told us why we need Archives and Archivists:

We are trying to build up extensive records which will be of value to a future historian.... It is highly important that the factual material be placed in our files in such a way that there can be no substantial distortion.... We want to keep enlarging on this idea for the sake of the full length history to come...

– Bill W., 1957

II. Mission Statement

The National Archives Workshop is committed to helping Alcoholics Anonymous Archivists working within the service structure of Alcoholics Anonymous who are also bound by the spiritual principles of our Fellowship.

III. Statement of Purpose

The National A.A. Archives Workshop is an open, service-oriented, educational Workshop hosted on an annual basis by a Host Committee chosen through an open bidding, Third Legacy procedure. The Guidelines, Agendas, and overall direction of the Workshop are determined by the Board of Trustees, Officers, and Advisory Council of the National A.A. Archives Workshop. The individual workshops are conducted in an A.A. Forum format, with a specific focus on the open sharing of the experience, strength and hope of Archivists, attendees and members of the NAAAW. Each Workshop seeks to renew and energize our efforts and foster enhanced communications between A.A. Archivists and Archives Committee members. We share information, methods, procedures, ethics, and our enthusiasm at each Workshop.

Consistent with A.A.'s primary purpose, A.A. Archivists and National A.A. Archives Workshop attendees try to help the still suffering alcoholic by preserving the integrity of the A.A. message and the history of the Fellowship for current and future members

As our A.A. unity, spirit, and support for A.A. Archives efforts continues to grow, develop, and prosper, our service encourages further study, attraction, and participation in A.A. and archival related matters to help carry the A.A. message to the still suffering alcoholic.

XVIII. The NAAAW Bidding Process

Any A.A. General Service Area or Intergroup Archives Committee in the US & Canada Service Structure may present a completed bid for the NAAAW. A bid is considered complete when the potential Host Committee (known as the Bid Committee) follows the NAAAW Bidding Guidelines and submits a completed Bid Package to the Chair and Secretary of the NAAAW Board. Whenever possible the location of the Workshop and the Host Committee will be chosen at the Annual NAAAW Business Meeting two (2) years before the next available Workshop. Any Bid Committee may present their partial or completed Bid Package to the NAAAW Board at any time during the calendar year in which the next workshop location and Host Committee will be chosen (Bid Year). The NAAAW Board may give feedback to the Bid Committee during this time. Bid Committees are encouraged to review all hotel proposals and potential contracts with the NAAAW Contracts and Documents Chair. All completed Bid Packages are due by May 1st of the calendar year in which the next workshop location and Host Committee will be chosen. All members of the NAAAW Board are expected to review all Bid Packages. Before the NAAAW Board selects the next Workshop Location a "Priority Inventory Session" will be held to give all NAAAW Board members and opportunity to share which factors they consider most important to their decision. The next Host Committee is then elected using the Third Legacy Procedure in the same manner as individuals are elected to a service position. In the event that no completed bids are made, or the NAAAW Board does not feel ready to award the Workshop to one of the Bid Committees, the Bid Year will remain "open" until the February NAAAW Board Business Meeting. If no suitable Host Committee is found the NAAAW Board will determine whether the Workshop should be suspended.

XIX. The NAAAW Host Committee Responsibilities

Although most of the active responsibility for the NAAAW rests with the Host Committees, the final responsibility for the NAAAW rests with the NAAAW Board. "Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined." – *"Twelve Concepts for World Service" p.IV The NAAAW Bylaws, Guidelines, and other NAAAW Documents (listed on page four) define the responsibilities and the scope of authority for the NAAAW Board and Host Committees. In this working relationship between the NAAAW Board, the Host Committees, and the attendees of the workshop the NAAAW Board and Host Committees must always respect the "Right of Decision" and the "Right of Participation" of each entity in reasonable proportion to their responsibilities. "No class is set in absolute authority over another." – *Twelve Concepts for World Service" p.15 It is the responsibility of the all NAAAW Host Committees to send monthly reports to the Chair and Secretary of the NAAAW Board to ensure timely communication of Host Committee activities and plans. This gives the NAAAW Board the opportunity to support the Host Committees and to address any concerns they have in a timely manner. All members of Host Committees are expected to familiarize themselves with all NAAAW Board Documents and conduct their activities and the Workshop itself in the manner outlined in these documents including the "Conduct of the NAAAW Board and Host Committees" section contained on page two of these Bylaws. The Host Committees are expected to closely follow The NAAAW Host Committee Guidelines in all their planning of the Workshop.

XX. The National A.A. Archives Workshop Financials

The National A.A. Archives Workshop is financially responsible for the Workshop. The National A.A. Archives Workshop is not affiliated with any other entity, including, but not limited to General Service Areas and A.A. Intergroups. The Prudent Reserve, listed in the NAAAW Guidelines, is based on an average of the last four (4) years contract obligations and is regularly reviewed and updated. Funds over the Prudent Reserve, as well as any funds that remain upon dissolution of the NAAAW 501 (c)(3) (applied for), will be distributed to the General Service Board of Alcoholics Anonymous.
